The health and safety of patients, staff, professional staff and the community is our utmost priority. While restrictions on multiple employers have been lifted, the organization has implemented a reconsideration process for employers which pose a minimal exposure risk. Secondary employers that have active screening, allow for physical distancing, provide mandatory Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) and good infection control practices and have minimal public exposure can be considered. You may make a request for reconsideration through your Manager. Work must not commence until approved by Human Resources in consultation with Occupational Health & Safety and the Incident Management Team. Emergency orders related to long term-care and congregate care facilities, including the Transitional Care Unit at Hogarth Riverview Manor, are still in place and exceptions cannot be made at this time.

Our Hospital continues to increase COVID-19 testing capacity. With thanks to the efforts of the dedicated leadership and staff of the laboratory team and Microbiology department, there will soon be two different platforms in use. This development will provide contingency to mitigate supply chain issues, and further improve turn-around time for results, which in turn enhances patient flow and decreases isolation times.
