

Biomedical and Clinical Engineering Week

May 16-22, 2021

This week, we salute the biomedical engineers, clinical engineers, biomedical engineering technicians, and technologists who make valuable contributions to Thunder Bay Regional Health Sciences Centre and countless other health care institutions across the country. These professionals play a vital role in the areas of patient safety, research and development, technology management, equipment services, cost savings, problem solving, planning and support.

Thunder Bay Regional Health Sciences
Centre

CMBES/SCGB

The Canadian Medical and Biological
Engineering Society