

THOUGHT LEADER SPOTLIGHT

A Strategic Plan clearly lays out a meaningful and achievable future state. The Strategic Plan 2026 will be a bold and innovative plan to guide our Hospital and Health Research Institute for the next five years. In preparation, we have engaged nine thought leaders in the health care industry to inspire hope, creativity, and innovation.

Dr. Michael Schull

CEO and Senior Scientist, ICES; Professor, Department of Medicine, University of Toronto; Senior Scientist, Sunnybrook Research Institute

Dr. Michael Schull is CEO and Senior Scientist at ICES, Professor in the Department of Medicine at the University of Toronto, and a Senior Scientist at the Sunnybrook Research Institute. Located on the campus of Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre with satellite sites at Queen's University, the University of Ottawa, Western University, McMaster University, and Health Sciences North, ICES is a community of research, data and clinical experts who lead cutting-edge studies that evaluate health care delivery and outcomes.

His research focuses on health service utilization, quality of care, health system integration and patient outcomes, and the evaluation of health policy. Under his leadership, ICES has expanded the types of data available for researchers, created a virtual data platform where researchers can access and analyze linked datasets, launched a health artificial intelligence data and analysis platform, and engaged the public in the work of ICES to ensure it remains aligned with public values.

Schull leads the participation of ICES in the Health Data Research Network, a pan-Canadian initiative to build a national health and social data platform. He practices as an Emergency Medicine specialist at Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre.
