

Order Your Orange Shirt in time for National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

September 30th is National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, also known as Orange Shirt Day. The day honours the lost children and survivors of residential schools, their families and communities. Public commemoration of the tragic and painful history and ongoing impacts of residential schools is a vital component of the reconciliation process.

To prepare for Orange Shirt Day we are making available an opportunity for you to order your own Every Child Matters orange t-shirt.

This year's Every Child Matters design was drawn by Jayda, an Indigenous artist attending Dennis Franklin Cromarty High School in Thunder Bay, Ontario.

A portion of the proceeds will be donated to Dennis Franklin Cromarty and Pelican Falls High School for Scholarships to support Indigenous students. Last year we donated $4,000 in scholarships from sales of Orange T-Shirts at our retail store, Uniform Pros.

“ The meaning behind this painting is that butterflies are gentle beautiful insects that have a role on earth to help plants flourish. ”

Jayda

Please place your order online at <https://tbrhsceverychildmatters2022.itemorder.com/shop/home>

To arrange for delivery or pick-up of your order, please contact Stephanie Rowan, Manager, Nutrition & Food Services at extension 6735, or at Stephanie.Rowan@tbh.net.

Stay tuned for more information on the Residential School era and activities planned at Thunder Bay Regional Health Sciences Centre for September 30th.

Thunder Bay Regional Health Sciences
Centre