

Transfusion Medicine Boot Camp for Nurses

Patient
Experiences
Lessons for Learning!

November 23,
2022
0900 – 1200 hrs

Register Here

There is no fee to attend, however registration is mandatory.

Links to attend this Teams event on your computer will be emailed to you on November 21, 2022.

0900 - 0920 hrs

Welcome / Opening Remarks

0920 - 1005 hrs

Plenary Session:
Transfusion Guidelines/
Blood Administration

RBC Transfusions: Historical vs Best Practices

Jacob Pendergrast MD, FRCPC, Associate Professor, University of Toronto, Medical Director, University Health Network Blood Transfusion Service

Documenting Transfusion: Dotting the i's, Crossing the t's

Donna Berta RN BScN, Nursing Clinical Project Coordinator, ORBCoN

Learning Objectives:

1. To understand the origins of traditional RBC transfusion practices and why these have changed.
2. To define nursing actions to safely document blood transfusion.

1005 -1015 hrs

Break

1015 - 1100 hrs

Plenary Session:

Transfusion Reactions

Transfusion Associated Circulatory Overload (TACO) Clinical Perspectives

Sarah Hall RN, Transfusion Safety Officer, Lakeridge Health

1100 - 1110 hrs

Break

1110 - 1155 hrs

Concurrent Sessions - select one

A: Massive Hemorrhage Protocol - Adults

Alison Armstrong RN, BScN, ENCC, Clinical Manager - Regional Trauma Program & NSQIP, London Health Sciences Centre

B: Massive Hemorrhage Protocol - Pediatrics

Christina Toppozini RN, BScN, MPH, Simulation Nurse Educator, Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario

C: All About Anemia and Iron

Anna Plant RN., BScN., MScN. ONTraC Patient Blood Management Coordinator, North Bay Regional Health Centre

Barbara Last RN, Coordinator, Patient Blood Management Program, Ontario Transfusion Coordinators (ONTraC), Niagara Health

Learning Objectives:

1. Familiarize yourself on the identification and causes of the different types of anemia.
2. Not only a quick fix: why you should use IV iron formulations for IDA.

1155 - 1200 hrs

Closing Remarks

All sessions will be recorded and posted on ORBCoN's website:
<https://transfusionontario.org/en/category/orbcon-resources/presentation-library/bloody-easy-nursing-transfusion-medicine-boot-camp/>

A link to the evaluation survey will be provided. Following the evaluation survey, a certificate of attendance and pre/post knowledge question answers with rationale will be available.

Thunder Bay Regional Health Sciences
Centre

