Charles Hayter, M.D., is an oncologist, medical historian & award-winning playwright. His work explores the complex human dimensions of modern medical practice.

This Group's Learning program meets the certification criteria of the College of Family Physicians of Canada and has been certified by the Continuing Education and Professional Development Office at the Northern Ontario School of Medicine for up to 1.0 Mainpro+ credits.

NOHHMG

The Northern Ontario History of Health and Medicine Group links students, faculty, researchers, practitioners, staff and interested individuals from across the North and beyond from a range of disciplines/professions. It is open to the public.

Learning Objectives: Demonstrate knowledge of the history of cancer care. Discuss research methods, sources & results related to the history of cancer care. Discuss and develop a wider critical perspective on the history of cancer care that can help inform their perspectives on issues related to practice & relevant public debates.
