

DIGITAL STORYTELLING WORKSHOP

THUNDER BAY, ON
JAN 30 - FEB 01

Creative Exploration:

Dive into the world of digital storytelling using photos, video clips, art, and sound to bring a personal story to life.

Hands-On Learning:

Gain practical skills and techniques guided by experienced facilitators passionate about storytelling through multimedia.

Interactive Sessions:

Engage in interactive sessions that empower you to express your unique narrative in a supportive and creative environment.

Travel and accommodations included (if required)
Workshop participants will also receive an honorarium.

Open to anyone over the age of 18 who identifies as First Nation, Inuit, or Métis. Limited spots available, so reserve your spot now!

To sign up contact
bjackson-ominika@iphcc.ca

iphcc.ca | 416 645 0822

