

Reminder- UKG Pro Workforce Management is Live March 25

What do I need to do on March 25th?

Starting March 25, 2024, you will be required to punch at the start and end of your scheduled shift.

Beginning, this time you will need to use UKG to view your schedule. You will also be required to submit requests for time off, overtime, missed breaks, meal allowances and mileage through UKG Pro Workforce Management.
